CAMPAIGN & CANDIDACY GUIDELINES

DO's

- A candidate must receive over 50% of the vote (simple majority) to win an election. If no candidate reaches a simple majority on the first ballot, the top two vote-recipients will advance to a runoff the following day.
- Each candidate may spend a maximum of $50 on campaign materials. These will not be reimbursed. All receipts for campaign expenditures must be clearly marked with the name of the candidate and turned in to the ASB Director of Finance's mailbox by 02/13/23.
- Posters must be approved and stamped by the Nicholson Commons Building Managers.
- Each candidate may post no more than one poster at each location. Posters must be no larger than 11 x 17 inches.
- Only blue painter tape can be used to secure posters on walls, windows, or buildings. Thumb tacks or push pins are allowed for use only on bulletin boards.
- Make appropriate posters. Anything that is even marginally inappropriate will be removed and the candidate's eligibility reviewed by the campaign co-chairs.
- Remove all posters within 24 hours of the final results being announced (EOB 4/23/21).

- Candidates running for the position of ASB Director of Spiritual Life will declare candidacy by scheduling a meeting with Spiritual Development. If you have not done so, inform the campaign co-chairs immediately.

DON'Ts

- Run for office without strictly meeting all requirements, including dates. Elected candidates found unable to fulfill a requirement are subject to revocation of election and appointment of next-highest vote recipient.
- The following are expressly prohibited:
 - Sidewalk chalk or posters on the ground
 - Campaign materials in the windows of residence halls
- No passing out any type of materials, including posters, food, etc.
- No negative campaigning. This includes word of mouth from you AND your supporters, and is irrespective of the actions or perceived moral character of your opponent. If you believe a candidate for any position has behaved unethically, report it to your campaign chairs immediately.
- Outside funding is strictly prohibited. No Super PACs, no Citizens United!
- All candidates must follow Covid Guidelines
 - Covid Guidelines
- Do not post publicity anywhere besides approved locations outlined below:

ELECTION FORUMS

- Candidates will be notified of a date after the time of declaration.
 - This is highly encouraged to participate in but it is not mandatory.
 - Candidates will be asked a series of questions and then be able to answer the questions.
 - Candidates should not talk about other candidates. Answers must be fully focused on their own campaign, not the campaign of others.
 - Please keep forums appropriate and positive.

SPEECHES

- You will be notified with the time length restrictions for each position. These are determined based on the number of people running. The microphone will be shut off if you go over the time allotted.
 - All speeches must be submitted to campaign co-chairs by Tuesday, 02/17/23 by 8am. Failing to submit a speech can result in not being able to run.
 - No props, including placing things in the crowd.
 - This is a solo act, no one else should be involved in your speech
 - Please keep speeches appropriate and positive.
 - Deviating from the submitted speech can result in consequences including disqualification. Please stick to the script.
 - While on stage, you must wear a mask until you get up to the microphone to begin your speech.
 - Speeches will be done live in Brown Chapel. If you are uncomfortable or unable to do your speech from Brown Chapel, you must notify the co-chairs at declaration.

FOLLOWING ELECTIONS

- Winners will be announced to the campus community via email following elections
- Current ASB BoD will host an onboarding dinner TBD in April
- Training will be scheduled between incumbents and elected officers throughout SP23
- Elected officers are expected to attend at least one ASB BoD meeting (Wednesday, 4:00pm) and one Student Senate meeting (Monday, 5:00pm)

- Elected officers may begin unofficial planning for their positions once elected. The Director of Community is available for advising. Positions do not officially turn over until the beginning of summer, which is the close of residence halls at 3pm on May 13th
